

My One Concern

A
I wake up in the morning
E A
and I can't remember what the preacher said
C#m7
the night before
A E
and I toss and turn and search for God
F#m
but I cannot stop from thinking
D C#m7
about people places and things that should be D furthest from my mind, but

A
I want only You
E
to be so deep inside Your love
F#m
that I can't share my thoughts
D
with any other gods
A
and my well being wont distract me
E D A F#m E
if right now my one concern is -- You

A
I try to write a song
E A
but my spirit doesn't need another song
C#m7
another tool
A E
and I see that I am well equipped
F#m7
to glorify my God today
D C#m7
and listen to His voice and not my own D
cause when I'm holding still

A
And I try to read my bible
E A
but I know it's all been read a million times
C#m7
by someone else
A E
and I feel like what's the use?
F#m
because I'll never understand it all
D
I'll never reach the depth
C#m7
that others have
D
but I just don't care, because...