Em C D G
What profit is the image that its maker should carve it
Em C D G
the molded image, a teacher of lies
Em C D G
that the maker of its mold should trust in it to make mute idols
Em C D G
woe to him who says to wood, "Awake!"
Em C D G
to silent stone, "Arise! It shall teach!"
Em C D G
behold it is overlaid with gold and silver Em C D
and in it there is no breath at all
Em C D
and in it there is no breath at all

C D G Em
But the LORD is in His holy temple
C D Em
let all the earth keep silence before Him
C D G Em
But the LORD is in His holy temple
C D Em
let all the earth keep silence before Him

Em C D G
Though the fig tree may not blossom nor the fruit be on the vines
Em C D G
though the labor of the olive fail and the fields yield no food
Em C D G
though the flock be cut off from the fold and there be no herd in the stalls
Em C D
yet I will rejoice in the LORD
Em C D
I will joy in the God of my salvation

Em C D
things too wonderful for me to know

My ear had heard of You
G Em
but now my eye is seeing You
