

It was not an ordinary night. While the world slept, something unimaginable happened...

The Acceptance of the Sacrifice of the Passover Lamb of God

A dead body has lain cold and still in the grave during the course of the last three days, since Passover eve. As it lies in silence, suddenly new blood appears in its unused veins and arteries. The heart begins to beat. Warm blood undulates throughout the body. The Spirit of Life enters the body. Suddenly, empty lungs gasp and fill with air, breathing, taking oxygen to the blood. Eyes, once lifeless, staring empty into nothingness, suddenly animate and behold a glowing presence through the head-covering, light from an angel of God. The Voice of God the Father speaks, creating eternal reality:

"Son of Me are You, I today have begotten You"

(see Acts 13.32-39)

Grave clothes fall away, replaced by clothes of the living. Strength comes into the body and it rises from its bed of internment. The tomb's sealing-stone lurches back. The body steps forth from the tomb into the open night air. Yeshua, the Son of God, walks through the midst of armed guards, led by His Father to a place that He will show Him. The angel of God abides to convey his joy-filled message, all the words of this Life, to any who will come seeking:

"Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, He is risen!"

The Passover Lamb of God who takes away the sin of all the world, now the First Fruits from the dead, now the Firstborn among many brothers. Jesus, the Resurrection and the Life for all the adopted children of the Father.

Praise You Yah!!!
